

ABOUT LIT SOUL

LIT SOUL is a rock band hailing from Los Angeles that advocates liberty in the modern age. Rob Chevelle is the lead singer, rhythm guitar player, the pirate poet, the stumbling humanitarian and the main song writer. Eliot Waldhorn is the lead guitar player. His electric tone will stop you in your stride. Ty Dennis is the monster drummer who plays with the greats including the remaining Doors and Ian Astbury of The Cult. Erik MacPherson is the bass player with over 24 years experience in music and completes the rhythm section. Chris Holmes from W.A.S.P also features on its 2008 release called "Alliance".

INFLUENCES

Rock-n-Roll, truth, honor and liberty. Musically, LIT SOUL draws inspiration from the 60s and 70s including The Rolling Stones, The Cult, Led Zeppelin and Black Sabbath.

PRESS

"LIT SOUL bucks the indie/emo/screamo trends and honors unadorned rock with reflective lyrics in the vein of the Cult...hard rock attitude complete with acoustic interludes, thoughtful poetry and heartfelt (but not heavy-handed) political statements." - Jade Blackmore, Slums Hollywood

"A masterful blend of personal life experience and political consciousness. It's reverent with today's political climate, with all of the economic strife in America and Sarah Palin avoiding the press; ordinary citizens have been put on the hot seat. Its message is perfect timing in regards to personifying a need for change." - Darryl Salach, Toronto Quarterly

"LIT SOUL is what I can only describe as intelligent rock. It is unique and is confidently bridging a gap between poetry and rock." - Sonia Waterfield, SLW Productions
